

Natural building blocks for quality of life

2010 NSSGA Barry K. Wendt Memorial Scholarship

To honor the memory of the late Barry K. Wendt who tirelessly devoted his energy to advance the causes of the aggregates industry, the National Stone, Sand & Gravel Association, will present an annual scholarship to a student from an engineering school who plans to pursue a career in the aggregates industry.

To apply for the Wendt Memorial Scholarship, please complete the following application.

Application deadline is Monday, June 7th, 2010:

Name:
College/University:
Address:
City/St./Zip:
Phone:
Email Address:
Home Address:
City/St/Zip:
Phone:
Social Security #:
Expected Graduation Date:
Class Standing:
Major:
Overall GPA:
GPA in Major:

Please include with your application these four items:

- (a) Completed application
- (b) Letter of recommendation from your faculty advisor
- (c) On a separate sheet of paper, a 300 to 500 word statement of your plans for a career in the aggregates industry
- (d) If you have work experience in the aggregate industry as a summer employee, an intern, or through a cooperative work program, please include one or more recommendation letters from your employer(s).

Please forward your application, along with the other data requested to:

Wendt Memorial Scholarship Committee
 c/o NSSGA
 1605 King Street
 Alexandria, VA 22314