2024 REVIEW Magazine Publication Schedule and Guidelines

NSSGA Member Submissions for 2024 Articles Now Open

How to Submit An Article:

We are currently taking member submissions for REVIEW magazine articles. The available 2024 REVIEW magazine slots with the publishing dates are listed below. Topics coordinating with the issue theme is appreciated. Please submit your case studies, thought leadership and unique ideas. If you would like to sign-up please submit a topic to Kerry Lynch, editor of the REVIEW, at klynch@nssga.org. Article ideas are not guaranteed a place in the issue until confirmed by the editor.

Additional Guidelines:

All submissions should be editorial in nature – articles that appear to be company or product advertisements will not be accepted. For magazine ad purchases, please contact Naylor.

Articles should be around 1,000 words (for 2-pages) and include a high res. image with a caption.

Articles should come with a title, the authors headshot, company and title.

After the article is accepted, it will be edited to follow the magazine's style guidelines. The edited word draft will be returned with the final version approved by the author and REVIEW editor. There will be another chance to review and make any edits during the design phase. A designed copy will be sent to the author for their final approval.
